

Update in medicine

Thursday 16 May 2019

6 external clinical CPD credits: Ref 124190

Royal Armouries Museum, Armouries Drive, Leeds, LS10 1LT

- 08:45      Registration and Tea/Coffee
- 09:25      Welcome and Introduction,
Chair: Dr Mounes Dakkak - RCP Regional Adviser, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 09:30      Non-invasive ventilation on the acute medical take - Getting it right in the real world
Dr Mark Elliott, Leeds Teaching Hospitals
- 10:05      When are combinations of antibiotics really clinically useful?
Dr Gavin Barlow, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 10:40      Inadequate treatment of angina pectoris - what can be done in 2019
Dr Angela Hoye, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 11:15      Tea/Coffee
- 11:45      Simms Lecture: Management of acute severe colitis in 2019
Professor Simon Travis, Oxford University Hospitals
- 12:35      Lunch
- 13:30      Open Forum with RCP President Professor Andrew Goddard and Officers
- 14:15      Interpretation of in-patient endocrinology
Dr Robert Murray, Leeds Teaching hospitals
- 14:50      Hepatology Made Easy: Top tips for managing liver disease patients as a non-specialist
Dr Lynsey Corless, Hull University Teaching Hospitals
- 15:25      Tea/Coffee
- 15:50      What are non-epileptic seizures, and why do people get them?
Dr Richard Grunewald, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
- 16:25      The unwell renal patient on the MAU - what should I do?
Dr Elizabeth Garthwaite, Leeds Teaching Hospitals
- 17:00      Thanks and close