

Suggested e-learning sessions for acute medical unit staff

E-Learning for Healthcare (eLFH), Adolescent Health Programme (part of the Healthy Child Programme), www.e-lfh.org.uk/programmes/adolescent-health/.

Module 1

01_001 Introduction to adolescent health and illness

Module 2

02_001 Healthy development in adolescence

Module 3

03_001 The legal framework for working with young people

03_002 Capacity and consent

03_003 Confidentiality

03_004 Safeguarding adolescents

Module 4

04_001 Communication skills in young people

04_002 Health communication and young people: setting the scene

Module 5

05_001 Health promotion in young people

Module 6

06_001 The experience of long-term illness and disability during adolescence

06_003 Sex and health risk behaviour in long-term conditions and disability

06_005 Transition from child-centred to adult-centred healthcare

Module 7

07_001 Adherence and concordance in young people

07_002 Practical approaches to improving adherence and concordance

Module 8

08_001 Introduction to youth friendly services

08_003 Hospital based services for young people

Module 9

09_001 Sexual behaviour in adolescence

09_003 Sexually transmitted infections in young people

Module 10

10_001 Mental health and wellbeing in adolescence

10_002 Introduction to self-harm

10_005 Recognising common mental health problems

Module 11

11_001 Substance use, misuse and abuse

11_003 Prevention strategies

Module 12

12_001 Body shape and body image in adolescence

Module 13

13_001 Introduction to common symptoms and help-seeking