

Royal College of Physicians

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Postgraduate Awards in Gender Identity Healthcare

Applications are now open

Developed by the Royal College of Physicians and University of London, this suite of credentials will enable the next generation of clinical leaders to meet health service needs for rapid and sustainable gender identity healthcare.

Commencing in September 2020, these flexible postgraduate diploma and certificates the first of their kind in the UK and worldwide.

They will be relevant for all healthcare professionals providing services and care for adults who are receiving or may request gender identity healthcare.

Applications close on 14 August 2020.

Please email us or visit our website for further information.

postgraduate@rcplondon.ac.uk
www.rcplondon.ac.uk