Unlock all the benefits of your membership

‘The RCP provides a pathway for you to do more of the things
you feel are worthwhile’

– Dr Dheya Biswas FRCP
Consultant in acute and
general medicine;
RCP college tutor

‘The RCP really listens to its members’

– Dr Sonia Panchal
Consultant rheumatologist;
RCP deputy registrar

The Royal College of Physicians (RCP) represents over 37,000 doctors worldwide. We work to improve health through education, care quality and policy development.

Your RCP

We really value our members and want you to get the most from your membership.

Make sure you visit www.rcplondon.ac.uk to unlock all your member benefits.

Associates

If you're a medical student, foundation doctor, CMT/IMT trainee, pre-MRCP(UK) or qualified physician, you are part of our associate network. This includes specialty and associate specialist (SAS) doctors and advanced clinical practitioners.

Visit www.rcplondon.ac.uk/associate-membership to discover all the benefits of your membership.

'Join and attend the regional events – they're really useful and perfect for making contacts within the profession who are local to you'

–Dr Sarah-Jane Bailey

ST6 registrar in geriatrics and general internal medicine

Collegiates

If you're a doctor who holds the MRCP(UK) qualification or an NHS consultant in a substantive position, you are part of our collegiate network. Visit www.rcplondon.ac.uk/collegiate-membership to discover all the benefits of your membership.

Fellowship

Go to www.rcplondon.ac.uk/fellowship to find out more about the role of fellows at the RCP and how the nomination process works.

What's in it for you?

Throughout your career we're there every step of the way. Whether you're looking to enhance your clinical knowledge or be part of a speciality committee.

The RCP where you live and work

As a member you're part of your regional RCP community. Enjoy reduced rates at RCP conferences and events – including those in your region. Use the opportunity to connect with our growing membership of physicians locally.

www.rcplondon.ac.uk/events

We encourage local members to support RCP activities by volunteering for roles – these roles include regional adviser, college tutor and regional representation on committees. You receive regular newsletters from your local regional team too.

RCP Online Ed™

Our e-learning resources allow you to:

- > learn the best practices
- > gain CPD credits
- > access learning anytime
- > study anywhere
- > access learning on your mobile device
- > reduce your carbon footprint.

Library

Our information services support the delivery of our medical education courses. We purchase clinical and CPD material. To supplement our e-journal collection, articles in other journals can be sent to you by email, often within a few hours, using our document delivery service. Loanable books may be borrowed by post and, if we do not hold a book you need, we borrow it via our inter-library loan service.

Our free literature searching service saves you time too.

Journals and more

Enjoy two high-quality peer-reviewed clinical journals, Clinical Medicine and Future Healthcare Journal, plus our bimonthly magazine, Commentary, in print and/or online.

www.rcplondon.ac.uk/education-practice/rcp-journals

RCP Revise™ is a collection of learning resources and courses designed to help doctors prepare for all parts of the MRCP(UK) examinations.
