RCP membership, supporting your career development

‘The RCP provides a pathway for you to do more of the things
you feel are worthwhile’

– Dr Dheya Biswas FRCP
Consultant in acute and
general medicine;
RCP college tutor

‘The RCP really listens to its members’

– Dr Sonia Panchal
Consultant rheumatologist;
RCP deputy registrar

The Royal College of Physicians (RCP) is a community of over 40,000 members worldwide. We're committed to raising standards and supporting healthcare professionals throughout their careers.

Your RCP

We really value our members and want you to get the most from your membership.

Make sure you visit www.rcp.ac.uk to unlock all your member benefits.

Associates

If you're a medical student, foundation doctor, CMT/IMT trainee, pre-MRCP(UK) or qualified physician, you are part of our associate network. This includes specialty and associate specialist (SAS) doctors and advanced clinical practitioners.

Visit www.rcp.ac.uk/associate-membership to discover all the benefits of your membership.

'Join and attend the regional events – they're really useful and perfect for making contacts within the profession who are local to you'

–Dr Sarah-Jane Bailey

Collegiates

If you're a doctor who holds the MRCP(UK) qualification or an NHS consultant in a substantive position, you are part of our collegiate network. Visit www.rcp.ac.uk/collegiate-membership to discover all the benefits of your membership.

Fellowship

Go to www.rcp.ac.uk/fellowship to find out more about the role of fellows at the RCP and how the nomination process works.

What's in it for you?

Throughout your career we're there every step of the way. Whether you're looking to enhance your clinical knowledge or be part of a specialty committee.

RCP membership aims to support you to have a successful and enjoyable career – whether you've just started training or have been practising for years. We advocate for your needs, help you gain new skills and knowledge, keep you informed of the latest developments and enable you to connect with supportive colleagues through our local, national and global networks.

As an RCP member you'll receive access to a wide range of benefits to support you at every stage of your career, including:

RCP Player

RCP Player, our new streaming service has something for every career grade and specialty, ranging from 90-minute webinars to multi-day conferences. RCP members and fellows get free access to our webinars.

In addition, the content is available for 30 days after the event to secure CPD credits. Members receive:

- > free access to specialty webinars, trainee lectures and more
- > discounted access to virtual and in-person events, such as regional conferences, Medicine 2022 and Med+. Visit RCP Player: <https://player.rcplondon.ac.uk/live>

Representation and advocacy

We work with the UK government, the NHS, GMC, HEE and others to promote innovation and ensure their decisions are in the best interests of patients and the medical profession. Our network of regional, career-stage and specialty representatives ensure your voice is heard on the issues that matter most.

Education and training

Our high-quality e-learning, workshops and longer courses support you as your career and interests progress. Support is themed to focus on clinicians as educators, leaders and researchers. Members receive discounts on workshops and courses.

Journals and more

Enjoy full online access to our two high-quality peer-reviewed journals, Clinical Medicine and Future Healthcare Journal, including all content embargoed to non-members, plus online access to our bimonthly magazine, Commentary, and three special print issues per year.
