

Royal College of Physicians

Garden and venue hire

Located in a stunning setting overlooking Regent's Park in the heart of London, the Royal College of Physicians' (RCP's) Grade 1-listed building is a unique conference and events centre and one of London's best-kept architectural secrets.

For over 17 years, the RCP has been offering an award-winning and highly versatile venue for conferences, meetings, banquets and training, and features landscaped grounds – a Medicinal Garden – for outdoor events. This secluded venue offers an atmosphere of light and space, with an intriguing mix of stylish, modern architecture and traditional interiors.

Our home in St Andrews Place includes our Medicinal Garden, with more than 1,300 plants. The garden was first created in 1965, and extensively replanted from 2005 onwards, thanks to a grant from the Wolfson Foundation.

The RCP Medicinal Garden

Our home in St Andrews Place includes our Medicinal Garden, with more than 1,300 plants. The garden was first created in 1965, and extensively replanted from 2005 onwards, thanks to a grant from the Wolfson Foundation.

The plants in the garden are all famed for their medicinal associations or to honour historic physicians, reflecting modern-day medical practice, as well as the Doctrine of Signatures, the humoral system of medicine of ancient Greece, herbal medicine, modern myths, hallucinogens, narcotics and much more.

All plants are labelled with their Latin names, their plant families, and the region of the world from which they come.

The garden is free to explore during our opening hours of 9am–5pm, and we offer free guided garden tours on the first Wednesday of every month at 2pm, between March and November.

For more information or to schedule a bespoke tour, visit: www.rcplondon.ac.uk/guided-tours

As well as enjoying the garden, visitors are welcome to explore nearly 500 years of medical history at our London home. A free 30-minute guided museum tour, open to everyone, runs at 1.30pm on the first Wednesday of every month.

To reserve your place, or to book a bespoke tour for groups of six or more, email: history@rcplondon.ac.uk.

Venue hire

The RCP is an award-winning and versatile venue for conferences, meetings, banquets, training and outdoor events. We offer:

- > a stunning central London location overlooking Regent's Park, with convenient transport links
- > a distinctive Grade 1-listed modernist building by the acclaimed architect Denys Lasdun, with an atmosphere of light and space, and a selection of both old and new architectural styles
- > outstanding modern conference facilities, tiered auditoriums, flexible exhibition spaces, and use of the Medicinal Garden for al fresco social events
- > first-class catering service, with bespoke menus
- > full support from dedicated event managers, catering experts and audiovisual technicians.

Revenue generated by hosting events helps to fund many important activities that form part of the RCP's role in healthcare.
