

Global ambition, global reach

Advancing patient care in low-resource settings

Wednesday 25 October 2017

9.00 Registration and coffee

10.00 Welcome

Professor Jane Dacre, president, Royal College of Physicians

10.15 Introduction

Professor Ali Jawad, international medical director, Royal College of Physicians

Session 1: Shaping the global response to infectious disease

Chair: Professor Dame Parveen Kumar, professor of medicine and education, Barts and the London School of Medicine and Dentistry

10.30 M-PACT: the clinical training model

Dr Obinna Oleribe, project manager, M-PACT programme

Dr Emmanuel Fru Nsutebu, faculty member, M-PACT programme

11.00 Panel discussion: preparing for the next epidemic

Dr Gibrilla Deen, deputy chief medical director, University of Sierra Leone Teaching Hospitals Complex; M-PACT Freetown course convener

Professor Keith McAdam, emeritus professor of clinical tropical medicine, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine; RCP special adviser for Sub-Saharan Africa

Dr Edmund Ong, consultant physician, Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust; faculty member, RCP doctor-patient communications skills training, Myanmar

Dr Obinna Oleribe, project manager, M-PACT programme
Dr Emmanuel Fru Nsutebu, faculty member, M-PACT programme

11.30 Coffee

Session 2: The epidemiological transition – tackling non-communicable diseases (NCDs)

Chair: Dr Saleyha Ahsan, Doctors Under Fire

12.00 Stroke in Sub-Saharan Africa

Professor Richard Walker, consultant and honorary professor of ageing and international health, North Tyneside General Hospital; RCP associate international director for Sub-Saharan Africa

12.30 Panel discussion: the rising burden of NCDs

Dr Omoding Abrahams, medical oncologist, Uganda Cancer Institute; RCP Medical Training and Fellowship (METAF) programme course convener

Professor Yook-Chin Chia, professor and senior consultant, University of Malaya, Malaysia; RCP international adviser for Malaysia

Dr Russell Roberts, consultant nephrologist, Bradford Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust; RCP associate international director for the Asia-Pacific region

Professor Richard Walker, RCP associate international director for Sub-Saharan Africa

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Parallel breakout sessions

Do no harm: patient safety at the centre of care	Leadership for better outcomes	Extreme medicine
Session content – TBC Facilitator: Dr Michael Durkin	Supporting leadership development in low-resource settings Facilitator: Ms Kirsten Armit	The Syrian conflict: responding to the challenge of burns in children Facilitator: Dr Saleyha Ahsan

14.45 Parallel breakout sessions continued

Patient access in East Africa	Medical Training Initiative	Designing care today for tomorrow
The East, Central and Southern Africa College of Physicians Facilitator: Dr Henry Mwandumba	A mutually beneficial programme for trusts and overseas trainees Facilitator: Dr Agam Jung	Understanding people, systems, design and risk Facilitator: Dr John Dean

15.30 Coffee (Platt Room)

Session 3: Refugee health

Chair: The Rt Hon Lord Malcolm Bruce of Bennachie

16.00 Topic title – TBC

Dr Mohammed Al-Hadid, president, Jordan National Red Crescent Society

16.30 Panel discussion: addressing refugee health

Dr Mohammed Al-Hadid, president, Jordan National Red Crescent Society

Martin McCann, chief executive officer, RedR UK

Mr Gareth Owen OBE, humanitarian director, Save the Children

Dr Saleyha Ahsan, Doctors Under Fire

17.00 Summary and close of conference

Professor Jane Dacre, president, Royal College of Physicians

17.30 Drinks reception (Platt Room)